BOSTON MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY WELCOMES INDUSTRY VETERAN AS VICE PRESIDENT OF UNDERWRITING

National Insurance Solutions Provider Adds Extensive Management Experience to Underwriting Department to Support Company Growth

Canton, Mass. – (May 15, 2018) – Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company, a national provider of insurance solutions for individuals and at the workplace, today announced the appointment of Robert “Bob” Dignazio as Vice President of Underwriting. Mr. Dignazio brings over thirty years of insurance experience in underwriting, sales, and management to Boston Mutual. As vice president, Mr. Dignazio’s broad experience within the industry will support the strong partnership between Boston Mutual’s Strategic Business Centers (the company’s four business areas) to drive sales and producer growth while meeting profitability objectives.

“We’re excited to welcome Bob to Boston Mutual as a strategic leader to our underwriting department,” said Joseph W. Sullivan, J.D., Executive Vice President and Chief Risk Officer at Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company. “His extensive underwriting experience and sales background will play a key role in expanding our distribution footprint and improving producer relationships as our company continues to grow.”

In his new role, Mr. Dignazio will manage the expanding underwriting department, including overseeing the management team, within Boston Mutual’s Risk Strategic Business Center. He will lead the assessment of the company’s underwriting practices, processes, and rate development, and will contribute to overall enterprise risk management strategies. Mr. Dignazio will also coordinate with various internal divisions and external partners on development and maintenance of key producer relationships.

Robert Dignazio was most recently Assistant Vice President (AVP) of Internal Sales at Sun Life Financial in Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts. Previously, he served in various roles at Sun Life Financial, including AVP of Small Market Management, AVP of Multi-line Regional Underwriting, and Director of Disability/Regional Underwriting. He began his career as an actuarial student at Loyalty Life Insurance Company in 1983.

Mr. Dignazio earned a bachelor’s degree from Guilford College in Greensboro, North Carolina. Mr. Dignazio also holds a Disability Income Associate designation from America’s Health Insurance Plans (AHIP).
