BOSTON MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY CELEBRATES NATIONAL INSURANCE AWARENESS DAY BY HONORING LONG-TERM EMPLOYEES

Insurance Carrier Announces Recognition of Dedicated Service of Its Associates on Industry Holiday

Canton, Mass. – (June 28, 2017) – In honor of National Insurance Awareness Day on June 28, 2017, Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company, a national provider of insurance solutions for individuals and at the workplace, today announced the acknowledgment of 24 employees at the company's recent quarterly Service Recognition Celebrations. The employees, which include nine associates who have reached more than 20 years with the company, were recognized for their long-term service with Boston Mutual at three separate special quarterly events at the company's headquarters in Canton, Massachusetts.

“On National Insurance Awareness Day, it's important to bring attention to the value of life insurance, but equally important to acknowledge the people behind the scenes who help make that coverage possible,” said Paul A. Quaranto, Jr., Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President at Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company. “Taking care of our policyholders and producers is a top priority at Boston Mutual, and it's an honor to have dedicated employees who embody this mission and are committed to deliver on our promises.”

The select employees were honored with receptions at Boston Mutual's home office in December 2016, February 2017, and May 2017. Each recipient was presented with a gift as a thank you for their tenure with the company. While the majority of the honored employees have reached a five-year milestone, a significant number of the recognized associates – 13 – have been with the company for more than 15 years.
